HORROR CON SCOTLAND: THE HALLOWEEN EDITION

THEME: FOLLOW ME TO HELL

Where demons roam, trolls plot, strangers scream, and you question every life choice that led you here.

Welcome, mortal. You've arrived at the most twisted night of the year - Horror Con Scotland's Halloween takeover. Two floors. Multiple themed rooms. Films. Performances. Games. Goblins. Demons. Chaos. Prizes. Jelly beans. Yes, jelly beans. Don't ask questions. Just accept it.

This event guide is your book for survival. Inside, you'll find:

- The schedule (so you don't miss something you'll regret)
- Maps (so you don't wander into a demon summoning by accident)
- Room-by-room happenings
- Experiences, upgrades, photo ops and quests
- Rules (because apparently we must have those)

Some sessions have limited space - choose your favourites early and plant your butt there before the masses descend.

Whether you're here with friends or flying solo, you're one of us now. No judgment. No escape. No refunds for emotional trauma.

Demons. Trolls. Tricks. Lies. Chaos. Candy. Have fun.

This year, the halls have been claimed by trolls and demons. They are mischievous, untrustworthy, and worryingly enthusiastic about your suffering. As you explore:

Trust nothing

Expect jump-scares, weird encounters and bad influences

If someone offers you "free candy," be suspicious... even though yes, Jelly Belly UK have generously provided real candy that won't (as far as we know) curse your soul

Keep your wits sharp - there are prizes to win, quests to conquer, and surprises around every corner

Huge thanks to Jelly Belly UK - our chaotic candy conspirators - for fuelling the night with sugar and temptation in bean form.

Check the schedule on the app, the venue screens, or at the Info Desk - and try to avoid being bribed, tricked, abducted, roasted by trolls, or recruited into a cult... unless that sounds fun.

ENTRY AND THE VENUE

Saturday 1st November

11:00am – 5:00pm • All Ages

(Under 15s must be accompanied by a full-price paying adult)

Location: Paisley Town Hall

Important Note:

This is not a children's event. There are no children's activities, zones, or programming. The content, theme, performances, and atmosphere are designed for adults - the only reason this day is "all ages" is to allow horror-loving families to attend at their own discretion.

Adults love jelly beans, trolls, quests, demons, scares and chaos too.

Entry Times:

- 11:00am – Early Access ticket holders
- 12:00pm – General Access ticket holders

You may arrive any time after your allocated entry slot. You'll be stamped, marked, or lightly cursed (fine... just stamped) and may leave and re-enter throughout the day.

Last entry is 4:30pm.

Venue Address:

Paisley Town Hall

Abbey Close

Paisley, PA1 1JF

Just 20 minutes from Glasgow City Centre, 5 minutes from Paisley Gilmour Street train station, and surrounded by buses, parking, and a false sense of comfort.

Treasure it while you can.

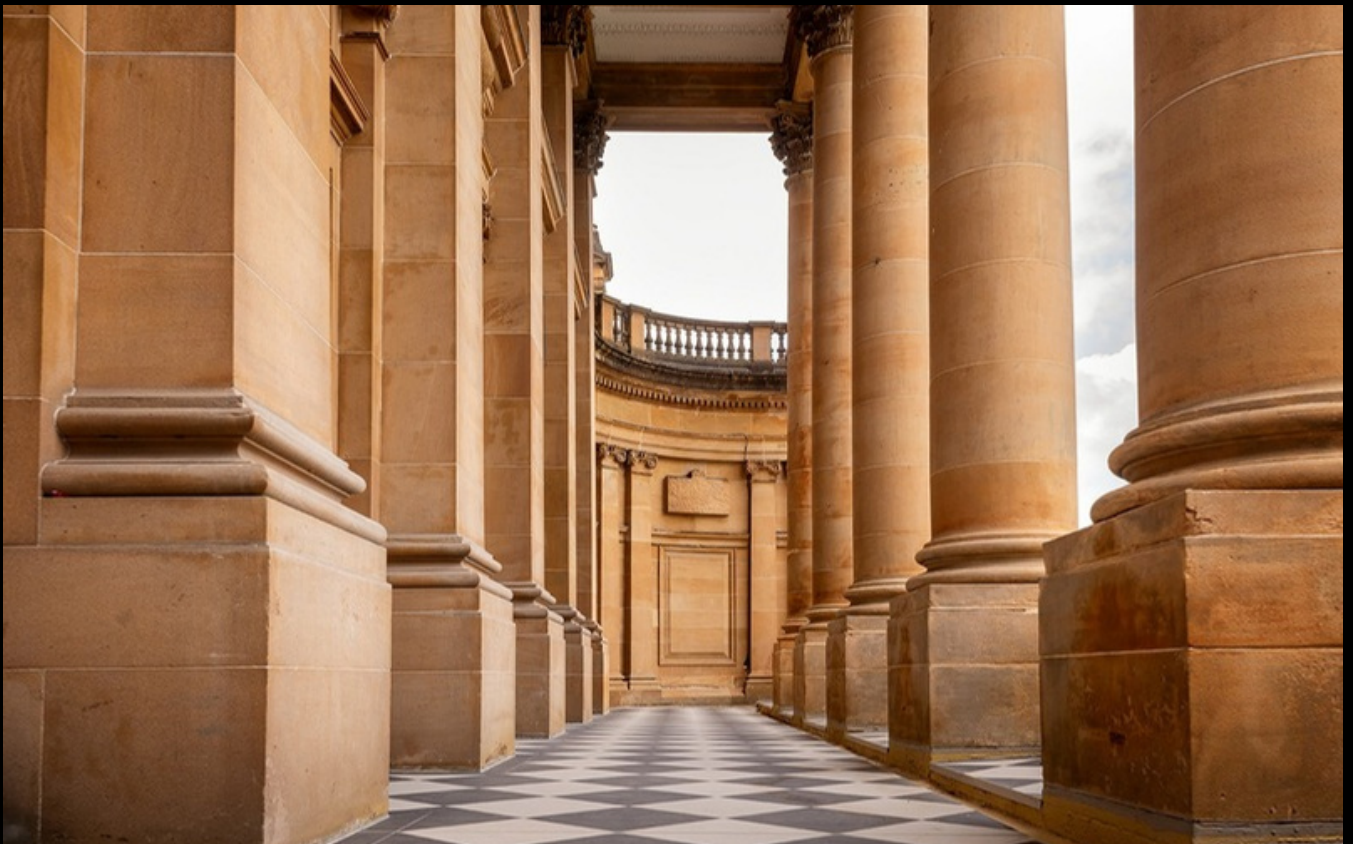

ACCESSIBILITY

We want horror fans of all kinds to enjoy the night - comfortably and safely - before we emotionally damage you.

Paisley Town Hall provides:

- Full wheelchair access throughout
- Step-free entry and accessible toilets
- Two lifts (100cm door / 150×190cm internal)
- Accessible parking/drop-off at the entrance
- Induction loop system
- Seating in multiple rooms
- Assistance dogs welcome (notify venue in advance)

This is a smaller-scale horror night, so queues and long-standing periods should be minimal - and there are plenty of places to sit, hide, recover, or plot revenge on trolls.
